5. I received my Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Pennsylvania in 1996, and my Doctor of Law degree from the University of Chicago in 2000.

6. I am admitted to practice before the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas and the United States Courts of Appeals for the Fifth and Ninth Circuits.

7. I joined Bickel & Brewer as an associate in 2002 after practicing with the Phoenix office of another national law firm. I became a senior associate at Bickel & Brewer in 2003 and, since 2007, have been responsible for the docket of cases handled by Bickel & Brewer Storefront, PLLC (“Bickel & Brewer Storefront”).

8. My practice has been devoted primarily to commercial litigation. More particularly, I have handled and been involved in cases in a number of substantive areas of law, including, but not limited to, antitrust and trade regulation, mergers and acquisitions, intellectual property (including patents and trade secrets), constitutional questions, and other business disputes. I have acted as lead trial counsel and argued appeals.

9. During my time at Bickel & Brewer the demand for my services has exceeded my personal capacity. For example, my billable hours for 2008 and 2009 exceeded 3,300 and 2,900 respectively (approximately 1,200 more hours per year than the average associate at a firm of one hundred or more attorneys in the Dallas/Fort Worth area).<sup>1</sup> Accordingly, my experience far exceeds that of most of my peers. For example, I have “first-chaired” or “second-chaired” at least six trials and two arbitrations, including a week-long jury trial in federal court; argued three appeals; and handled hundreds of hearings. Additionally, over the course of my career, I have had significant responsibility for the management of cases. For example, as the attorney responsible for the docket of Bickel & Brewer Storefront, I am currently responsible for the management of nineteen cases handled by the Storefront.

10. As a result of my involvement in local government litigation, I have given a number of presentations including: (1) as a panelist at the 2006 Annual Bar Convention Open Government Section on open meetings and open records; (2) as a panelist at the antitrust section of the Dallas Bar association; and (3) as a panelist at an event hosted by the Dallas Lawyer Chapter of the American Constitution Society, entitled "Farmers Branch Immigration Ordinance: A Panel Discussion" held at Southern Methodist University Law School.

11. I have also co-authored an article entitled "Keep justice balanced," concerning attorney compensation and tort reform published in the National Law Journal on August 3, 2003,<sup>2</sup> guest lectured at Southern Methodist University with respect to law and economics, and provided training to in-house counsel and other professionals. Additionally, I was recognized in 2009 and 2010 as a "Texas Super Lawyers Rising Star" as featured in Texas Monthly magazine.

B. As Prevailing Parties, The Villas Plaintiffs Seek To Recover A Portion Of The Litigation Expenses Incurred In Prosecuting This Action To A Successful Conclusion.

12. The Villas Plaintiffs are and, at all times pertinent hereto, have been represented in the above-captioned action by Bickel & Brewer Storefront. A true and correct copy of the engagement letters between Bickel & Brewer Storefront and the Villas Plaintiffs, which sets forth the terms of their attorney-client relationship and their agreement with respect to fees and expenses, are attached as Exhibit "A" and "B" to the Declaration of James S. Renard, filed concurrently herewith.

13. As the letters demonstrate, Bickel & Brewer Storefront will not be reimbursed for the litigation expenses that it has incurred absent this Court's award of such expenses.

14. In addition to the relief that the Court has already awarded in this action, Villas Plaintiffs seek an award of reasonable litigation expenses. Under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54, the Court may award a prevailing party its costs.<sup>3</sup> It is my understanding that "[t]o qualify as a prevailing party, all that is required is that the plaintiff obtain the primary relief sought."<sup>4</sup> Villas Plaintiffs obtained the primary relief they sought—namely, an injunction preventing the effectuation and enforcement of Ordinance 2952. In accordance with the foregoing, the Villas Plaintiffs now request an award of expenses.

C. The Reasonable Expenses Incurred In Protecting The Villas Plaintiffs' Constitutional Rights.

1. The total expenses incurred

15. In connection with its representation of the Villas Plaintiffs in the above-captioned action, Bickel & Brewer Storefront incurred various expenses. Because the terms of the engagement letters between Bickel & Brewer Storefront and the Villas Plaintiffs (Exhibits "A" and "B" to the Renard Declaration) do not provide for ongoing client payment of expenses (but, rather, make reimbursement for such expenses contingent on certain favorable outcomes), monthly statements were not finalized and sent to the Villas Plaintiffs. Nevertheless, draft cumulative fee statements relating to this action were prepared from Bickel & Brewer's computerized billing system, the last two pages of which set forth the expenses incurred. A true and correct copy of the portions of the draft cumulative statements setting forth the incurred expenses is attached hereto as Exhibits “1” and “2.”<sup>5</sup>

16. Further, Bickel & Brewer’s computerized system categorizes expenses, including: (1) trial/depo/hearing prep; (2) O/T trial/depo/hearing prep;<sup>6</sup> (3) court reporting; (4) photocopies; and (5) scanning. True and correct copies of those reports are attached hereto as Exhibits “3” through “7,” respectively.<sup>7</sup> As a senior associate at Bickel & Brewer and the attorney responsible for the Bickel & Brewer Storefront docket, I am charged with reviewing certain draft invoices to clients, which include third-party and in-house expenses, and I am one of the custodians of the records produced by the firm’s billing system relating to Bickel & Brewer Storefront matters, including Exhibits “1” through “8.”

17. As reflected in the attached Exhibit “1,” the total costs incurred in this action from January 18, 2008, through December 31, 2008, are $80,050.36. That figure is comprised of the following:

Third-Party Charges	Total
Court reporting services	$3,881.15
Delivery	$429.99
Filing Fee	$1,850.00 <sup>8</sup>

<sup>5</sup> Exhibits “1” and “2” constitute a record of the expenses incurred by Bickel & Brewer Storefront. Such costs are recorded by persons with knowledge of expenses in Bickel & Brewer’s computerized billing system in the ordinary course of Bickel & Brewer’s business.

<sup>6</sup> For internal accounting purposes, “trial/depo/hearing prep” and “O/T [over-time] trial/depo/hearing prep” are recorded separately. However, as shown in Exhibits 3 and 4, the hourly rates listed on the invoices do not change based on whether the work was performed on regular time or overtime.

<sup>7</sup> Additionally, attached hereto as Exhibit 8 is a true and correct copy of an invoice from Anne Pickett and a corresponding certificate of payment.

<sup>8</sup> This figure reflects the amount of the bond for the temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction (which will be released and, thus, is excluded from the requested expenses) and the filing fee (which will be included in a separate Statement of Costs provided that the Court amends the Judgment to tax costs against Defendant).

Third-Party Charges	Total

2. The Villas Plaintiffs seek to recover only a fraction of the litigation expenses.

19. Notwithstanding that the total expenses incurred exceeds $270,000, and solely in the interest of conservatism, Bickel & Brewer Storefront is excluding from the Villas Plaintiffs' request for reimbursement for the following expenses: (1) delivery fees; (2) hotel/lodging expenses; (3) index and abstracting services; (4) legal research (e.g., PACER, Westlaw, and Lexis); (5) parking; (6) professional services (except the $3,500 expert fee for Anne Pickett); (7) taxi/transportation/travel expenses; (8) color prints; (9) document index/imaging/quality control; (4) document production; (5) general litigation support services; (6) postage; (7) word processing; (8) meals; (9) outside copy services; (10) service fees; and (11) staff overtime, all of which Bickel & Brewer normally charges its fee-paying clients.<sup>9</sup> Those incurred expenses, plus other costs for which reimbursement is not sought herein, total $150,659.68.

20. Subtracting that amount from the total of $279,058.59 leaves $128,398.91 – which represents the expenses incurred for: (1) court reporting services; (2) the expert fee for Anne Pickett; (3) photocopies; (4) deposition and hearing preparation; and (5) document scanning.<sup>10</sup>

<sup>9</sup> See, e.g., Exhibit “A” and “B” to the Renard Declaration § B (“Legal Fees And Expenses To Be Charged”).

<sup>10</sup> The category “scanning” includes charges for converting hard-copy correspondence, deposition transcripts and exhibits, production documents, and other materials into electronic form.

21. I am generally familiar with the standards applicable to an award of expenses in federal civil rights cases. I understand that “all reasonable out-of pocket expenses, including charges for photocopying, paralegal assistance, travel, and telephone, are plainly recoverable in section 1988 fee awards because they are part of the costs normally charged to a fee-paying client.”<sup>11</sup> Further, “in any action or proceeding to enforce a provision of section 1981 or 1981a of this title, the court, in its discretion, may include expert fees as part of the attorney's fee.”<sup>12</sup>

a. Litigation assistants and case managers

22. In connection with its representation of the Villas Plaintiffs in the above-captioned action, Bickel & Brewer Storefront utilized the experience, talent, and skills of professional litigation assistants and case managers (who are neither attorneys nor in-house consultants or investigators). Those individuals provided valuable services with respect to the investigation, preparation, presentation, prosecution, and litigation of the Villas Plaintiffs' claims. Among other important tasks, they: (a) researched, gathered, reviewed, analyzed, and summarized evidence; (b) prepared appendices and exhibits for filings; (c) prepared binders and other materials for hearings; (d) prepared binders and exhibits for depositions;<sup>13</sup> (e) researched and located briefs from similar cases; (f) assisted in document production;<sup>14</sup> and (g) organized

<sup>13</sup> There were twenty-six depositions taken in this case of twenty-four different individuals. Some of the individuals were deposed as representatives of the City under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 30(b)(6) and in their individual capacity. Further, multiple depositions of representatives of the City occurred because, as the Court found, the original testimony was inadequate. See Order (Docket No. 86).

<sup>14</sup> The parties produced several thousand pages of documents in response to the written discovery requests served by all parties.

and prepared materials for attorneys' review in drafting briefs. The work performed by those litigation assistants and case managers was consistent with the functions performed by paralegals at other law firms (Bickel & Brewer does not use the job title "paralegal"). Accordingly, I understand that the billable time for those employees is recoverable as an expense normally billed to fee-paying clients.<sup>15</sup>

23. Although the invoices reflect that the value of litigation support (including hearing and deposition preparation) totals $104,711.50, Villas Plaintiffs seek an award of costs only for the time involved in hearing and deposition preparation. A total of eight (8) Bickel & Brewer litigation assistants and case managers (not including attorneys or in-house consultants or investigators) provided the foregoing services.

24. As with all client matters on which they work, those eight litigation assistants and case managers kept daily track of the time (expressed in one-tenth of an hour increments) that they devoted on this case in providing services to the Villas Plaintiffs. Those daily entries, which included a description of the services performed, were input into Bickel & Brewer's computerized billing system. That system has the capability of accumulating and printing those daily time entries for all such persons working on a given matter over any period of time, whether monthly, cumulatively, or otherwise.

25. As the attorney responsible for the Bickel & Brewer Storefront docket, I am one of the custodians of the records produced by the firm's billing system, including the reports attached hereto as Exhibits "3" and "4." As reflected in Exhibits "3" and "4," the total dollar value of the recorded time of the litigation assistants and case managers in this action through March 30, 2010, for work related to deposition and hearing preparation is $49,105.<sup>16</sup> That figure is the product of the total recorded time devoted to this matter during that period, as expressed in hours (355.3 hours), multiplied by the prevailing hourly billing rates of the individuals who provided those services (which ranged from $100 to $150 per hour).

26. Notwithstanding that the total value of the litigation assistant and case manager time expended in this matter exceeds $49,000, and solely in the interest of conservatism, we are excluding from the Villas Plaintiffs' application the value of the time devoted by six (6) of the eight above-referenced Bickel & Brewer employees who provided such services in this matter. The value of the time dedicated by those 6 individuals to this action is $3,655.

27. Subtracting that amount from the total of $49,105 leaves $45,450, which represents the value of the time devoted by the following litigation assistants and case managers: (a) Cynthia Platero ($9,180);<sup>17</sup> and (b) Steve Bohnenkamp ($36,270).<sup>18</sup>

28. As reflected in Exhibits "3" and "4," the hourly rates attributable to each of the individuals identified above are as follows: (a) Cynthia Platero ($100); and (e) Steve Bohnenkamp ($150). Those hourly rates were the prevailing rates typically charged by Bickel & Brewer to its fee-paying clients for those individuals' services at the time the services were performed.

29. I have practiced law for nearly ten years, over eight years in Dallas, Texas and the remainder at a national firm (over 450 lawyers). It is my opinion that the number of hours devoted to this matter by, and the hourly rates for, the above-referenced litigation assistants and case managers were reasonable, necessary, and consistent with the practice within the Northern District of Texas. In fact, Of Counsel 700, 2008-2009 Edition reports that Gardere Wynne Sewell bills paralegal time at $95 to $210 per hour, Thompson & Knight, LLP bills paralegal time at $65 to $215, and Andrews Kurth bills paralegal time at $160 to $235 an hour.<sup>19</sup> Moreover, such expenses are normally charged to, and paid by, fee-paying clients of Bickel & Brewer and other firms.

30. In the further interest of conservatism, we have reduced the total value of the expenses attributable to the two above-identified litigation support personnel by an additional $5,450. That leaves $40,000 – which is the net amount that the Villas Plaintiffs seek for litigation assistant and case manager services pursuant to their application for costs in this matter.

b. Other litigation expenses

31. In addition to the litigation support and case management expenses set forth above, Bickel & Brewer Storefront seeks to recover the following expenses: (1) court reporting services;<sup>20</sup> (2) photocopies;<sup>21</sup> (3) scanning;<sup>22</sup> and (4) expert fees (for Anne Pickett).<sup>23</sup> The total for those reasonable expenses is $ 79,293.91. Such expenses are normally charged to, and paid

<sup>21</sup> See Exhibit 6. At Bickel & Brewer, photocopies cannot be made and documents cannot be scanned without the user entering a client code and matter code. The firm's cost recovery software records and tracks that information. That information is then transferred to billing software. The attached Exhibits "6" and "7" are reports generated from that software and data and reflect each copy made and document scanned for this matter.

by, fee-paying clients of Bickel & Brewer as well as other firms. Nonetheless, in the further interest of conservatism, Villas Plaintiffs seek an award of only $60,000 for such expenses.

D. Conclusion And Request For Relief

32. Based upon the facts set forth above, it is my opinion that $40,000 for the litigation support and case management services and $60,000 for the other expenses described above ($100,000 in total) were reasonable and necessary expenses incurred in connection with the representation of the Villas Plaintiffs in this action, especially given that the actual expenses incurred by Bickel & Brewer Storefront exceeded $270,000. Accordingly, the Villas Plaintiffs seek to recover a total of $100,000 in litigation expenses relating to this action.

33. I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed on April 8, 2010.
